

For Immediate Release:

FRANK FULLER NAMED VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES FOR USA JET AIRLINES

Belleville, Michigan, February 6, 2006 – Active Aero Group, LLC announced the appointment of Frank V. Fuller to Vice President of Sales of USA Jet Airlines, Inc., a subsidiary of Active Aero Group. In this role, Fuller will oversee the business development initiatives for USA Jet Airlines' passenger travel division.

Fuller most recently served as Vice President of Operations for Active Aero Charters, where he worked closely with senior management to develop the company's air charter management division. Under his direction, Active Aero Charter has executed over 125,000 on-demand charters - making it the largest full-service air cargo charter management company in North America.

Fuller, a Vietnam Veteran, began his aviation career during his enlistment in the U.S. Marines. Following his military tour, Fuller worked as a pilot for Executive Aviation Services and later contracted with Chrysler Corporation on the development of Pentastar Cargo - Chrysler's in-house air charter manager. In 1990, Fuller joined Active Aero in the Sales Department and was promoted to Vice President of Charter Operations in 1994.

"We have experienced a tremendous demand for executive and group passenger travel since we began this service in late 2003," states Chris Healy, President of Active Aero Group. "I'm confident that Frank's knowledge of the aviation industry and his record of operational excellence will propel USA Jet's growth in the passenger travel industry."
